

Tips for Parents on Prom Safety

- Talk to the parents of your teens' friends to confirm the plans for the evening and to exchange cell phone numbers.
- Talk to your teen about your expectations for before, during and after the prom.
- Have your teen check in at different times.
- Make sure that you know the address where your teen will be going.
- Consider hosting an after prom party that is substance free
- If using a limo driver:
 - Review expectations and ask them to refrain from stops
 - inspect the limo yourself before they leave,
 - provide cell phone numbers from each parent to the driver.
- Stay up and check in with your teen when they get home
